BRITISH CABINET GETS IRISH REPLY, CALLED TO CONFER

LLOYD GEORGE SUMMONS AIDES TO DISCUSS NOTE.

MEET WEDNESDAY
Total Death Toll in Belfast Riots Reaches 18 Friday.

(By Associated Press.)
London.—Prime Minister Lloyd George has sent the reply of Eamon De Valera, the Irish republican leader, to his latest communication on the Irish peace proposals to London for circulation among the members of the cabinet. Having regard for the serious issues involved, Mr. Lloyd George has summoned a cabinet meeting to be held at least Wednesday at Inverness, Scotland.

TOTAL BELFAST DEATH
TOLL IS NEAR SCORE
Belfast.—James Johnston, 34, died Friday morning from wounds received during the street fighting here.

There were several cases of assault in the Falls district of the city Friday morning, men going to work being attacked. The police reported the city otherwise quiet.

AWAIT PUBLICATION
OF DE VALERA NOTE
Dublin.—Sir Fein Trevelyan, Friday awaited publication of the text of the note sent to Premier Lloyd George Thursday by Eamon De Valera and his colleagues in the Irish parliament.

Mr. Lloyd George is spending a brief vacation in Scotland and it was announced that nothing relative to the Sinn Féin reply to the premier's note relative to the settlement of the Irish question would be given out here until it was known that it was in Mr. Lloyd George's hands.

It was believed, however, that the Sinn Féin leaders did not discuss the Sinn Féin reply to the premier's note relative to the settlement of the Irish question with the exception of the final clause in which further negotiations were suggested. There was an understanding on the part of the Sinn Féin to develop further the conditions upon which dominion status would be granted Ireland and there appears to be a disposition to offer favorably some features of the premier's terms.

Rail Business
Sense Dulled,
Says Counsel

(By Associated Press.)
Washington.—Government regulation of railroads has so dulled the sense of railroad officials to business conditions that they no longer are able to determine when to reduce freight rates to save their business, John E. Benton, counsel for the state railroad commissions declared Friday, in argument before the Interstate Commerce Commission, on the applications to reduce rates on the Chicago and North Western railroad. The government has stabilized rates and as a result, he said, traffic officials no longer study conditions with a view to competition.

Slow action of the American roads, Mr. Benton said, in meeting the competition of Canadian roads for the export traffic of grain was an example of the "dullness" of the railroad officials.

"Anybody could see what was happening," he continued, referring to the increase of traffic in wheat grown in this country and transported to the coast by Canadian roads, "and yet they held their rates up until 100 per cent of the Chicago grain was taking Canadian routes."

Present high rates on grain are forcing the farmers of the west to abandon their farms, which ultimately will destroy the railroad business.

OFFICERS DOUBT
KIDNAPPING TALE OF KENOSHA GIRL

(By Associated Press.)
Kenosha.—Declaring she had been kidnapped and held captive in a Lake Shore hut by three men, Miss Theresa Lez, 16, found suffering from pelvic pain, was taken to the hospital Friday afternoon. The charges were questioned closely by the police who disbelieve the story given as a reason for her attempt at suicide. She fell while walking on Park avenue here, Thursday night, when her hand was found a half mile outside of her home. She has been missing from her home since Monday but outside of her story, no trace can be found of the three men she alleged, abducted her as she left her place of employment.

Lake Geneva Woman Bound and Gagged in Her Room Struggles for Two Hours

(By Associated Press.)
Lake Geneva.—Gagged by an unidentified assailant and bound to a chair in her room, in the home of Richard Smith, owner of the Chalet hotel here, Mrs. Jack Lowry, wife of a captain of the Lake Geneva National Guard cavalry troops, Thursday night struggled for more than two hours at her bonds before she was able to summon aid.

The assault has stirred the community, and Friday officials and volunteer vigilantes were seeking trace of the woman's assailant.

Mrs. Lowry, 35, a month ago was Miss Marie Novotny, an actress and cabaret dancer, well known in Chicago and New York. Captain Lowry two months ago was divorced from his wife, who was a Wauwatosa, Wis., girl, after a separation of several months. He had married the Wauwatosa girl five years ago.

MRS. LOWRY TELLS
STORY OF ASSAULT
Captain Lowry telling the story to a Gazette representative Friday said that he left home about 10:30 Thursday night to walk to the office to do some business, leaving his wife who was feeling ill at the Smith home in bed. Lowry with his brother-in-law, two dancing partners and a friend, left about 10 o'clock. Mrs. Lowry heard someone come into the house and called out, "What's that?" and then saw a man enter the room. She was gagged and bound. She struggled for two hours before she was able to summon aid.

IS SUED BY STATE

Twenty-five causes of action are listed in the complaint of the state, which has been filed in the circuit court of Dane county.

PRODUCERS CLAIM MILK PRICE SHOULD BE CUT TWO CENTS

CAN'T UNDERSTAND REDUCTION OF ONLY ONE CENT.

SOMETHING WRONG
Stick to Marketing Company and Win, Plea of Two Speakers.

Sixty members of the Janesville Milk Producers' association in a meeting here Thursday night reiterated their claims that "there is something wrong with the milk market in Janesville." The meeting, held in the circuit court chamber at the court house, was featured by talks by Prof. R. C. Kent, Wauwatosa, Ill., and R. K. Overton, La Prairie, president of the Rock County Milk Producers' association and a director of the Cooperative Marketing company.

"It certainly looks as though something were wrong in Janesville when the farmer cuts the wholesale price of the milk for 10c, or about 2 cents a quart, and the dealers turn around and cut their price only 1 cent a quart," declared Mr. Overton.

Discussion brought out that Milwaukee bought milk at 10 cents a quart during August with the price to producers at $2.64 per 100 pounds. The producers' union understood way Janesville is paying 10 cents with milk in September at only $1.50 per 100.

"The price of milk in Chicago is an index," declared Mr. Kent. "They should at least be getting 10 cent milk there, but with the milk wagon drivers strongly organized and demanding $3.50 a day, it is impossible for the dealers to get more than $1.50 a day."

"Something is wrong in Chicago," he continued, "when a milk dealer can get 10 cents a quart of milk a day."

Guns Roar Along 20 Mile Front in Big Mine Battle

(By Associated Press.)

Washington.—Federal troops from four camps, numbering approximately 4,000 men, at noon Friday, were either enroute or in readiness to move to West Virginia. Orders were issued early in the day by Major General Harbord, assistant chief of staff, on recommendation of Brigadier General Bandholtz, representative of the war department in the disturbed area. A few hours later the war department was advised the 26th infantry had left its station at Camp Dix, and that the 19th infantry was enroute from Camp Sherman to the coal fields. Two companies left Fort Thomas, Ky., and the 40th infantry began entraining at Camp Knox, Ky. Another regiment, the 16th, was ready at Camp Dix. Secretary Weeks was optimistic, expressing the belief that as soon as the federal troops reached the disturbed area the armed bands would disperse.

The declaration of martial law in five West Virginia counties was deferred pending arrival of the troops.

LUMBER COMPANY SAFE IS ROBBED
Small Amount of Cash Stolen at Solle Office—Two Suspects Held.

Two Janesville youths are held in the city lock-up for a connection with a robbery late Thursday night at the office of the Solle Lumber company, 16 North River street, opposite No. 1 street station. Between $10 and $15 was stolen from the safe, which was tipped open with the aid of a heavy sledge-hammer and a chisel.

The loss was so small because S. S. Solle, head of the company, had deposited the day's receipts shortly before the close of banking hours, Thursday afternoon.

In Third Attempt.
This is the third effort of safe robbers here within the past two months. The two former attempts were unsuccessful.

Thieves gained entrance to the Solle office through a window opening into the lumber yard. The outer combination to the steel safe was knocked off and the door to the strong-box was opened, evidently after considerable labor.

Entering the office early Friday morning, Robert Johnston, foreman, found burned matches scattered about the floor and the office littered with gunpowder. Police made an investigation which resulted in the detention of two suspects.

Fireman Saw Light.
The robbery occurred between 11 and 11:30 p. m. It is believed as one of the firemen in the station saw a light in the office about that time. He suspected nothing as three employees of the Solle Lumber company who had been at the fire station all evening playing cribbage had left but a short time before and it was presumed they had gone to the lumber company's office.

Hired Man Gives Alarm; Poses Scour Countryside for Murderers.

(By Associated Press.)
Milwaukee.—Mrs. Sophie Hoyer, 42, was shot to death by her husband, Morris, probably fatally wounded, and their daughter, Emily, 16, had her right arm shot off, early Friday when they resisted four bandits who attempted to rob the Hoyer farm home, 13 miles north of here.

According to Benjamin Koopman, farm hand, the quartet called at the house and asked permission to use the telephone, saying their automobile had broken down. Suddenly one of the men turned and ordered Mrs. Hoyer to throw up her hands.

The woman, who understood only English, asked where she meant. She was shot down without another word. Her daughter was shot three times in the arm. Mr. Hoyer, hearing the shots, was shot down as he came down the stairs to their assistance.

Koopman, who escaped, gave an alarm and a posse of 200 neighbors in fifty automobiles set out to scour the countryside in search of the gunmen.

TEN CONTRACTORS BID ON $75,000 PAVING PROGRAM

COMPETITION KEEN FOR CITY'S CONCRETE WORK
IN 1921-22.

$1.74 IS LOWEST

Racine and Freeport Firms Appear Lowest on Preliminary List.

Bids of 10 contractors for Janesville's 28,000 yard course reinforced concrete paving program were opened before the board of public works at 2 p. m. Thursday, with the Grand-Cramer company, Freeport, Ill., apparently the lowest bidder on the Blackhawk district work, and James Cape & Sons, Racine, the lowest on the Hickory and Glen street job.

Bids on paving per square yard ranged all the way from $1.74 to $2.73 for excavation, from 45 cents to $1.25 for curb and gutter, and from $1.05 to $1.65 for the concrete work.

The board of public works will take the next few days to go over the bids carefully and seek the lowest figure before awarding the contract.

Figuring the Cape company's bid as the lowest for Hickory and Glen streets, the cost of this job would be $29,517.72. At a glance, the Grand-Cramer bid for Blackhawk district seems lowest. It would total $42,652.02, including the entire cost.

These two bids are accepted, $72,201.74.

Bids Received

Following are the bids as received Thursday:

James Cape & Sons Co., Racine, $1.25 per cubic yard for excavation; $2.48 for curb and gutter; $1.05 for concrete; $1.74 for paving; and 60 cents for curb and gutter on Hickory and Glen.

Grand-Cramer Co., Freeport—Blackhawk district only, $4.5, excavation; $2.34, paving; $7.5, curb.

The bids were based on 4,254 cubic yards of excavation, 15,610 square yards of paving and 5,610 feet of curb and gutter on the Blackhawk and Glen streets—and in the Blackhawk district, 6,475 cubic yards excavation; 15,641 square yards paving, and 7,064 feet curb and gutter.

MINERS WAR GOES ON AS TROOPS ARRIVE

Counties by the military authorities as to the situation there. Federal military headquarters, it was said, were not worried about the situation at the moment, but were concentrating all efforts to get the troops in quickly.

"We are going right in and swamp the disorderly elements," said a high military authority Friday. "Troops from Camp Sherman are expected during the day, while these from New Jersey probably will not arrive until Saturday morning."

There was no authentic information at the governor's office, during the morning, beyond reports that miners were quiet in the vicinity of the Boone-Logan county lines, where the large body of armed men are concentrated, with the avowed intention of marching into Logan county.

Telephone reports from Madison, word to the effect that all wire communication to the so-called front has been cut and that more men are still going through Madison to join those opposing the peace officers at the county line.

Another fight on MOUNTAIN REPORTED. Madison, Va.—A battle between an Ohio volunteer unit, which the armed forces around Blair have been using since regular service on Little Coal River branch was stopped, passed through Madison Friday morning, bound for Whitesville, a mining village, on the Wyoming county border.

In one car, it was stated, were bound for Whitesville, a mining village, on the Wyoming county border. The other car, it was stated, had men who had fallen in the fighting on Blair mountain.

According to reports to authorities here, there was another brush with Blair militia Friday morning. The firing continued almost an hour. If there were casualties they were not reported.

TROOP ENTRAINMENT ORDERED BY HARBOR. Washington—Orders for the immediate entrainment of troops for the West Virginia strike zone were issued Friday by Major General Harbord, assistant chief of staff. Action was postponed, however, on the question of declaring martial law, pending conferences between Secretary Weeks and other government officials with President Harding.

The proclamation has been signed and requires only the issuance to become effective. The orders were issued as the result of a telegram from Brig. Gen. H. H. Bushnell, who was sent by Secretary Weeks to report on the situation and particularly on whether or not the strikers would accede to President Harding's command to disperse. General Bushnell at midnight Thursday recommended that troops be sent "at once."

FIRING SEASON DURING NIGHT HOURS. Logan, W. Va.—Early morning reports from Spruce Fork Ridge told little about the situation on the Logan county border, where fighting from either side was spasmodic during the night.

Col. W. E. Eubanks, West Virginia National Guard, in command of the Logan county forces, had no official statement to make, he said, and Sheriff Chaffin was equally reticent.

Three prisoners taken by patrol and brought here Thursday night were locked in the county jail, where they were before a fatal shooting had occurred.

While being transferred from one cell to another, Paul Cominsky, arrested at Ethel, Thursday, charged with being a suspicious person, attacked Jailer White, whereupon the officer said he shot and killed him. Cominsky, brought here for confinement after his arrest at Ethel, carried papers indicating that at one time he was an employee of the Winding Gulf Coal company.

WOMEN AND CHILDREN FLEE BATTLEFIELDS. St. Albans, Vt.—Women and children from the Little Coal river country, where armed bands have gathered along the eastern slope of Spruce Fork Ridge, have arrived here in large numbers and are quartered in hotels and with private families.

Many are families of business and professional men, although some are wives and children of miners. Authorities here believe that if it were possible for them to get through many other women and children from the mining villages would make their way to St. Albans, until their home region had become normal.

As on Thursday, no trains were running on the Little Coal river branch of the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad and the station agent here said all wires along the line had been cut. The signal system also was out of commission, he said.

When traffic was suspended, three locomotives, a string of freight cars and a complete passenger train were in the vicinity of the mining towns in the Boone-Logan county line.

Many stories are heard here from the people who have come from the mining country. They tell of the constant arrival of bands of men from many parts of southern and

Lawless "Israelites" Ousted from Colony After Bullets Sing

Canetown—A native religious sect which calls itself the "Israelites," under a "prophet" named Enoch, who led the "Israelites" to government land at Jibbuck, near Queenstown, Cape Colony, has been forcibly ejected, losing 171 killed and 129 wounded in a fight with mounted Cape police.

For some years past, the government had permitted the "Israelites" to celebrate "Passover" on a common but each year a growing number of "Israelites" remained behind on what they called "holy ground" until a village of some 350 huts had sprung up. The sect forbade anybody to enter the village of the "Israelites" except on orders from "Jehovah, the God of Israel," as interpreted by Enoch the prophet.

The government some time ago endeavored to register the settlement but the police were obliged to withdraw after bloodshed. Peaceful efforts by the Secretary for Native Affairs and others to induce the "Israelites" to government land, they steadfastly refused to do.

Finally a force of 800 mounted police moved from Queenstown to disperse the settlement of the village. Part of this will be due to the fact that there is not enough storage room at present in Janesville to take care of the stock, he stated.

Expanding the situation, he stated: "Coming to the Northwestern docks at Duluth, Superior and Manitowish, has always been handled during the summer months of the tourist season. The consumer has bought most of his coal in the summer and that has cleared the docks and made it possible to bring more coal in. This year, the consumer has not been purchasing and as a result the docks are overloaded. This means that the railroads will have to move the coal. Heavy movement of coal will in turn bring about a rise in the price of coal, grain and livestock. That will mean that Janesville will not be able to get as much coal as before.

No Rate Cut This Winter. "People have been thinking that the freight rate, which is more than half the cost of coal to the consumer in Janesville, will come down. They think that the dealer is holding them up. This is not true. The freight rate will not come down this winter.

While I understand that President Harding and also the Interstate Commerce Commission have said that certain freight rates, particularly those on coal, grain and livestock, will be reduced, it will be a long drawn-out affair. It may take months or a year to do so. I was at one time nine months in making a check on a freight rate.

After the rate is checked, the railroads must file application with the Interstate Commerce Commission for permission to make changes. Then it is months before the application is checked and acted upon by the commission.

The coal dealer is not trying to raise the price of coal to the consumer. He is asked largely upon the freight conditions and rate.

BLIND HERO NOW BUSINESS SUCCESS

Chicago—To Cora, Christian Poulsen of the United States Marines, his discharge from an army hospital in February, 1910, meant beginning life anew—the life of a blind man. In two years time, he has completed that readjustment and today Poulsen is in the fuel and feed business in Chicago, does a full day's work every day and, with the aid of his wife, is taking a correspondence course in business management.

Poulsen was with the Sixth Marines when a few thousand troops were chosen from the vanguard of the American advance on Paris in June 1918. The Sixth Marines kept their aid in the allies, but among those who were left on the battlefield was Corporal Poulsen, fully conscious, but bleeding and slightly from the burst of a high explosive shell. Poulsen was wounded just one year to a day from the date he enlisted. He has been totally blind ever since.

Following his discharge from the army hospital, Poulsen entered Evergreen, the Red Cross School for the Blind in Baltimore. There to take course in typewriting, Braille, English, Civics and learned to make small useful articles. He was getting $30 a month from his war risk insurance but wanted to earn his own living in addition.

A year later his father offered to give him work in his feed store in Chicago. Young Poulsen entered the office and began to learn to take orders and great deliveries. Today he is a full partner in his father's business. Now he feels that he needs still further technical training in business and has begun a correspondence course under the Federal Board for Vocational Education. He is studying this course in his spare time, with the aid of his wife whom he married last year and who now acts as his reader.

FRUIT PRICES ON DECLINE IN CITY

Peach and Plum Season Now at Height—Grapes Coming in.

The height of the season for peaches and plums has been reached, with carloads and watermelons on the decline and summer peaches, apples and grapes coming in now each week. Peaches coming from the west are on the local market in quantities. They are of excellent quality and size. Special prices for Saturday of 54 per bushel have been made in places, while in some places the price will be a little higher. These peaches will see the last of the season, it is stated by dealers.

In smaller quantities, the fruit sells for 40 cents per dozen or 25 cents per basket, where they are sold in the form. The price on the large baskets of the blue plums, which are now at their best, has been reduced to 75 cents in places, while the smaller baskets sell for less. Green grapes sell for 30 cents per box.

Grapes 10 to 25 Cents.
 Malaga grapes cost the housewife 25 cents per pound, the price having been slightly reduced, while the Concord, home grown grapes, sell for 10 cents per pound, 18 cents per basket. A great range in price is seen now in the market, the least of which will appear these next two weeks. Some of the small variety sell for as low as 8 cents each, while the highest price is now 30 cents each, an extra large kind. Watermelons can be had for 15, 25 or 35 cents. The eating pears are now very good, and are selling fast. It is still a little early for the canning variety, dealers stating that they are best in one or two weeks. Those now on the market are good for canning, however, and sell for 5 cents for 25 cents. The eating pears bring 25, 40 and 45 cents per dozen.

Better Apples Shown.
 More and better varieties of eating apples appear each week in the stores. They sell for 10 cents per pound in most places. Those for cooking cost 10 cents per pound and in some places 8 and 4 pounds for 25 cents. Lettuce change little in price, remaining at 40 cents per dozen, while oranges cost from 40 to 60 cents.

With the exception of sweet potato squash, selling at 15 cents per pound, there is nothing new in the vegetable market. This vegetable, when cooked and mashed like potatoes, is said to have a pleasing taste, having the flavor of both squash and sweet potatoes.

Pumpkins are large and good, selling for from 15 to 20 cents per dozen. Early cabbage costs a shilling a pound, while beets and carrots are 5 cents per bunch, and cabbage 5 cents per pound.

Tomato Price Drops.
 Leaf lettuce costs 20 cents per pound, and the heads are 20 cents each. Quantities of celery are now coming in and it sells for 4 to 8 cents per stalk. Tomatoes have dropped to 4 and 5 cents per pound, although they will not last much longer. Spanish onions sell in places for 6 cents and in others for a shilling a pound. Sweet potatoes are 3 and 4 pounds for a quarter and the others most common to 70 cents per bushel. A special price having been made for Saturday: Large pumpkins cost 15 cents each, while picking onions remain at 12 cents per pound. Cabbages are flooding the market, selling for 75 for a dollar for the smaller ones, as high as 3 for 10 cents and 5 cents each for the large ripe ones. The real ripe cabbages are used to make pickles resembling watermelon pickles.

Butter sells for as low as 25 cents in places, while in others it costs 40 and 45 cents per pound. The different makes bring 25, 30 and 35 cents. Eggs are from 25 to 35 cents per dozen.

When the newly furnished Myers theatre opens Labor Day under the management of Charles G. Routin, Janesville theatre goers will be treated to a musical program of a new high order for this city. It will be given by the Myers Concert orchestra of seven musicians.

Realizing that the first requisite of good entertainment is good music, Manager Routin has assembled one of the finest musical organizations ever brought together in this city. In the body appear a few of the musicians, the rest being from out of town.

Associated with Mr. Unger will be William Bennett, pianist; Burr Tolson, cornetist; Frank Culver, trombonist; Fred Hayward, clarinetist; Chet Warren, string bass and Maxell Horn, drums.

It is the plan of every performance of the Myers to set one number aside for the orchestra at which time they will render something a little out of the ordinary in the way of musical diversion. The repertoire to be heard during the coming season will include the classical and popular while Mr. Unger will give marvellous solos as at stated periods.

A number of well known Janesville men have been gathered as the staff of the Myers. They are Ralph H. Meacham, publisher, George W. Cashier, Glen Riley, building superintendent; Lew Higgins, stage manager; B. A. Heath, electrician; John Roach, properties; and M. E. Wilder, prompter.

The ushers will be dressed in blue serge with white shirts and black ties. They are Fred L. Brown, Earl Conroy, Raymond Conroy, Edward Pomeroy and Earl Cunningham.

Luncheon Club Idea, to Promote Cooperation, Takes Firm Root in U. S.

New York.—The luncheon club idea as a means of cultivating the spirit of a brotherhood and cooperation among business and professional men is rapidly spreading throughout the United States and Canada.

These clubs today, in all sections of North America, are aiding in the problems of reconstruction and are promoting the principles of good government and good citizenship and are promising to become great business building organizations.

Since the birth of the luncheon club idea in Chicago, Feb. 23, 1905, when the first group of Rotarians launched their organization, two other international associations have been formed—the Lions and the Kiwanis—which together with the Rotary have a total membership of nearly 100,000 divided into 240 different clubs.

Rotary is Largest.

Taking as its slogan, "Service, not Self," the Rotary, most who serves best, has the largest membership of these clubs, having 99 clubs with a membership of more than 70,000 of the representative business and professional men of the country.

The Rotarians urge the Golden Rule in business dealings and their objects are set forth as follows:

"To promote the recognition of the worthiness of a legitimate occupation and to dignify each member's occupation as affording him an opportunity to serve society.

"To encourage high official standards in business professions.

"To increase the efficiency of each member by the development of improved ideas and business methods.

"To stimulate the desire of each member to be of service to his fellow men and society in general.

"To promote the specializing of acquaintance as an opportunity for service and an aid to success.

"To encourage the interest of each member in the public welfare of his community and to cooperate with others in civic, commercial and industrial development.

The international headquarters of the Rotary Club is at Chicago, and its officers are: Crawford C. McCullough, Port William, Canada, president; Ralph W. Cummings, Lancaster, Pa., first vice president; William C. Beck, Council Bluffs, Ia., second vice president; E. A. Luther, Stark, Orange, Tex., third vice president; Rufus B. Chapin, Chicago, treasurer.

The second luncheon club association to be founded—the International Kiwanis Club—was organized at Detroit, Jan. 7, 1915, by a group of business men, who took as their slogan, "One of Indian origin, which stands for the observance of the Golden Rule in private, civic, social and business relations."

The Kiwanis also aim to promote the spirit of fraternalism among business and professional men and one of its main objects is to "discourage the selfishness of business competition and to promote cooperation between its members in the development of the various lines they represent."

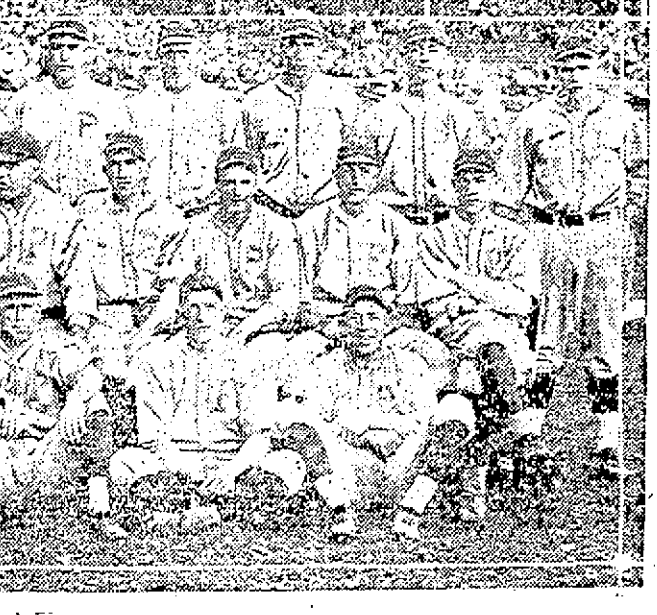

"We Build" is the motto of the Kiwanis, who are also advocating that in the present day of reconstruction "same thinking must prevail against selfishness and greed."

Among its distinguished members the Kiwanis boast of President Harding, a charter member of the Marion, O. club, the Prince of Wales, members of Montreal club, and President Carranza of Mexico, member of a Texas Club.

President Harding in speaking of the Kiwanis said:

"If I can have with me in my work and life the spirit of Kiwanis with its friendly cooperation, I shall have to fear of the morrow. Your motto, 'We Build,' is the greatest thing in the scheme of business, but we must not only build, but preserve. I have been

WAY OPEN TO GIVE 50,000 EMPLOYMENT

Chicago.—The way was open here today for the employment of 50,000 men in the building industry and the start of $100,000,000 worth of building contracts. The path will be finished Saturday. It is expected, when James M. Landis, architect, and building trades controversy announces his decision.

An oral agreement between builders and labor chiefs removes all restrictions except union rules establishing hours and wages, leaving workers free to work where they please without permits of payment of fees. The same agreement provides that contractors not members of organized groups may enter competition without fear of combinations.

This agreement is expected greatly to simplify the process of reaching a speedy decision on wages and hours of work.

Three Bad Cities Plan Aid for Workers

Madison.—Three Wisconsin cities, Milwaukee, Racine and Madison, are preparing to meet the unemployment problem this winter, the industrial commission wired Herbert Hoover, secretary of commerce, Friday, in reply to his request for information, addressed to Governor Blaine.

"The governor has recommended immediate attention to this problem by all communities in his Labor day proclamation."

MEET CALLED TO STIR UP CONGRESS

Harding Sees Peril if G. O. P. Delays Longer on Big Legislation.

By DAVID LAWRENCE.

Copyright 1921, by Janesville Gazette.

Washington—The underlying purpose of the unemployment conference called by President Harding is to get Congress employed. The administration realizes that unless the republicans get busy and pass the legislation which is needed to stimulate business throughout the country, the number of jobless folk will increase instead of diminish this winter and the congressional session will be a failure.

President Harding wants Congress to do several things which in his opinion will speed the return to normalcy.

What President Wants

First—The president wants the pending treaty with Germany and Austria ratified, so that America's foreign relations will be clarified and trade resumed with central Europe.

Second—Mr. Harding wants authority given at once to Secretary Mellon to advance with the allies for the payment of interest and principal on the ten billion of dollars owed us. Thus it is hoped that by definitely fixing the time of payments the allies will be able to calculate upon the amounts they must set aside every year toward the payment of the debt and when the allied governments begin to finance themselves on a definite basis the value of their currency will increase and international exchange, which is the basis of all trade, will tend to become equalized. With exchange improved, the purchasing power of Europe will gradually return. Once the purchasing power of Europe is restored, American surplus goods can be exported and the firms which have closed down their factories will want to reopen them so as to supply Europe. Indeed, international bankers who have favored the league of nations and American co-operation with Europe in matters of finance have argued that American factories would never have closed down if two years ago the United States had ratified the Versailles treaty and entered into closer financial relationship with Europe. However, that may be, the fact is the same argument is being made now in behalf of the Hughes-Knox treaty, namely, that ratification will "stimulate economic conditions in Europe and thus help America to sell her goods."

Helping Railroads

Third—Congress has been "vainly urged to authorize the war finance corporation to use its funds to pay the railroads certain sums owed them. This, it has been contended, would mean the placing of a half billion dollars of money into purchases for equipment and would mean that the steel business and other trades affected by railroad development would have to take back many of the men they have laid off. Mr. Harding pleaded with Congress to act on the railroad bill before it recessed, but the senate refused to allow the plan to interfere with its plans for a month's vacation.

Tariff and Revenue

Fourth—Congress has debated first the tariff and then the revenue bill and has failed to pass either one. The administration has urged action right along, contending that the business men of the country want to know what their taxes will be before they make any plans for expansion or the reopening of factories now closed down. It is practically as difficult to operate a business without knowing the size of the tax bill as to try to get along without knowing from week to week or year to year what the payroll will be. Business petitioned Congress to hurry up and get the tax bill through by July 1, so that planning could be done during the summer months. Now it will be a revenue bill. The administration will have to keep Congress constantly reminded of its duty to get results on the tax bill, the passage of which is expected to stimulate business.

The Unemployment Conference

The unemployment conference is generally commended in Washington as a move in the direction of discovering the true facts, but when anybody asks an administration official what is to be done with the facts, what remedies are proposed, the inevitable answer is a shrug of the shoulders and the expression of a hope that Congress will take heed and employ itself with pending legislation.

TAKE NEW TACK IN SQUELCHING BOOZE

Barn, in Which Still Was Found, to Be Sold by State.

A new angle in the bootlegging game and the effort of the government to suppress illicit whiskey sales and manufacture has developed in Beloit.

Last Saturday a still was found in a barn on the property where Bartlett Piccone lives. He was taken into custody and now the barn is to be confiscated and sold, as is the right of the state under the Severe law. He said the still had been rented to another person, who was making the moonshine. To get to the other person, not apprehended, the officers will sell the barn.

There is much sadness in the bootlegging game, as shown by the insistence of the officials that these sons of Italy shall obey the law.

Frank Bua was arrested for having moonshine in his possession. He was taken out with four quart bottles of liquor. He said it was for customers who had ordered it. A fine of $200 was assessed against him. He chose to spend six months in jail. In his home a still with permanent plumbing was found but he was about out of liquor. Joe Bua, Frank's brother, also was arrested for violation of the liquor law.

A determined effort is being made by state and federal officials to break up the Italian colony in Beloit, where the violations of the liquor law have been centered largely and which is said to be the cause of all the trouble Beloit has had ever moonshine. Here Janesville parties have been wont to come and pick "dead" moonshiners and property by riding back to the county seat in a wobbly automobile.

DISARMAMENT MEET TO SPOIL DAY FOR JAP SHIPBUILDERS

Tokio—If the Washington conference ends in an international agreement on naval limitation, the effect will be to add to the present difficulties of Japanese shipbuilding companies which have only been able to keep in full operation because of orders from the Navy Department. Continued depression in the merchant marine has already hit the shipbuilders seriously.

Of the leading shipyards, most of them depend upon orders. At the moment naval orders are very important to the shipyards and it is difficult for those which do not or cannot undertake to hold their own against the prevailing depression.

It is said that for reasons connected with the budget or for some other reason, the naval authorities are postponing the issue of new orders.

ARCH MARKS HUNDRED YEARS OF PEACE BETWEEN UNITED STATES AND CANADA

Picture of world's first peace arch taken from American side, with workman who built the portal in the foreground.

The world's first peace arch is to be opened in September and dedicated to the never broken friendship between the United States and Canada. The simple portal is built on the international boundary between the two countries, at Blaine, in Washington, and White Rock, in British Columbia, within one hundred yards of the Pacific ocean. The arch will commemorate the one hundred years of peace along the 2,500 miles from the Atlantic to the Pacific where there has been no need for battlements, forts or sentries for 107 years.

Without knowing the size of the arch, the tax bill as to try to get along without knowing from week to week or year to year what the payroll will be.
